

New England Today
LIVING

<https://newengland.com/today/living/homes/new-england-architecture/>

17TH-CENTURY COLONIAL HOUSES (1630-1700, locally to 1740)

New England Architecture: The Colonial Sherburne House (c. 1695-1703) at the Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Aimee Seavey

New England Architecture: A coastal classic Cape Cod house.

Annie Graves

GEORGIAN HOUSES (1700-1780, locally to 1830)

New England Architecture: The Georgian Chase House (1762) at the Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Aimee Seavey

ADAM-STYLE HOUSES, ALSO CALLED FEDERAL (1780-1820, locally to 1840)

New England Architecture: The Federal Goodwin Mansion (1811) at the Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Aimee Seavey

GREEK REVIVAL HOUSES (1830-1850)

New England Architecture: The Nathaniel Lord Thompson house in Kennebunk, Maine is an example of Greek Revival architecture.

Brenda Darroch

VICTORIAN HOUSES (1855-1900)

New England Architecture: A Victorian sits overlooking the Atlantic Ocean on the New Hampshire seacoast.

Aimee Seavey